Swiss International Air Lines. The Airline of Switzerland

Operating from Zurich and Geneva, Swiss International Air Lines serves over 100 destinations in more than 44 countries. Swiss International Air Lines' fleet of around 90 aircraft carries almost 18 million passengers each year. Its freight division, Swiss WorldCargo, offers a comprehensive airport-to-airport service for high-value goods and freight that requires special handling. In 2018, Swiss International Air Lines employed 9,000 people and generated a turnover of over CHF 5 billion.

As "The Airline of Switzerland", Swiss International Air Lines embodies its home country's traditional values and is committed to delivering the highest product and service quality. Thanks to its manageable size, SWISS is also ideally placed to remain as close as possible to its customers and to meet their individual needs. Swiss International Air Lines is constantly investing to maintain a modern fleet and, with its wide range of ground services, offers passengers a seamless travel experience.

Swiss International Air Lines is deeply committed to the prudent use of resources at various levels and a responsible attitude towards the environment is enshrined in its corporate culture. As part of the Lufthansa Group and a member of Star Alliance, Swiss International Air Lines remains true to its mission of providing high-quality connections between Switzerland and Europe and the world.

Zurich Airport. Transport hub at the heart of Europe

Outstandingly well-served

Located right in the heart of Europe and at the foot of the Alps, Zurich Airport offers infinite mobility. Zurich is served by more than 70 airlines from around 200 destinations. More than 360 train and some 1,200 bus and tram lines provide direct daily connections to the rest of Switzerland and its neighbouring countries. The city of Zurich, Switzerland's economic centre, is a mere ten minutes away by train. Direct access to the motorway and 20,000 public parking spaces, most of which are covered, also make Zurich Airport extremely attractive for motorists. The tram line also provides the airport with a direct link to the city centre.

The modern airport, with its attractive range of shops, is not just the country's most important gateway for airline passengers but also an excursion and shopping destination in its own right. The Airside Center, the central point of reference and the heart of the airport, is noted for its breathtakingly elegant architecture, which makes it an attractive place to stroll and linger. Travellers can expect the highest level of comfort at the Radisson Blu Hotel, Zurich Airport.

First and last representative

Zurich Airport is an important component in the chain of tourism services. It establishes those lingering first and last impressions that visitors have of Switzerland, and so acts as a national ambassador. Zurich Airport is a multiple winner of the World Travel Award for "Europe's Leading Airport".

Thanks to cooperation with Switzerland Tourism, all of Zurich Airport's brochures can be obtained from ST's international offices.

By car from A to B. Explore Switzerland in a hire car

Travelling through Switzerland by car is extremely convenient and offers total flexibility. A hire car enables visitors to not only visit the remotest corners of the country, but to also combine several destinations comfortably in a day. And of course, travellers can enjoy a stop for coffee or to take photos exactly when and where they want.

The Swiss road network

Motorists on Switzerland's roads can be confident of a high-quality experience. The road network is extremely well developed and clearly signposted. In winter, if the mountain passes are covered with snow, motorists have the option at many locations of loading vehicles onto a car transporter train.

Europcar – Switzerland Tourism's car hire partner

Europcar, the number one car hire company in Europe, is also the market leader in Switzerland. It operates more than 90 rental locations in every region of the country – including at all of the larger airports. For outdoor enthusiasts, the Volkswagen camper models remain on offer. In winter, Europcar rents reliable 4x4 vehicles of all sizes. Europcar also caters specifically for the needs of people with disabilities and their dependants, offering vehicles to transport people in wheelchairs. Enjoy unrestricted mobility when travelling in Switzerland.
