How to enjoy:

Schilthorn with James Bond Brunch

Take the cable car from the valley of the (72) waterfalls to the Schilthorn and enjoy a James Bond Brunch in the 360° Restaurant Piz Gloria while taking in the 200 alpine peaks that include the Mont Blanc in France. On a good day you will also see the Black Forest in Germany. Enjoy the Skyline View platform, Walk of Fame, View lounges, Spy World and Cinema before descending to Birg to take in the Skyline Walk and the Thrill Walk to give you an adrenaline rush!

How to snow:

Try2Ski Offer

The perfect package for those who have never skied but would like to experience this amazing winter sport for the first time. After a visit to the Schilthorn for lunch you can head for the sports shop in Mürren. You will be kitted out with skis, boots, poles and a helmet before walking 2 minutes to the ski slopes. You have a ski instructor who will teach you the basics next to where the first slalom in the world was held in January 1922. If you have a smart phone then a video and images of you skiing in this historic area will be organized by the instructor for the perfect souvenir and social media post.

How to Après-Ski:

Cheese fondue and sledging

You can rent a sledge at the sports shop in Mürren then head for the Allmendhubel funicular train station in Mürren. Take the train to the Allmendhubel and enjoy the Cheese fondue package before taking your sledge to the Bob run and sledging all the way down to Mürren, if you do not wish to sledge walking is also a possibility on the Lantern trail. The Bob run had bob sledges running down in the 1930s and again for the filming in the James Bond film "On Her Majesty's Secret Service" in 1969.
