Experience Ticino: The Mediterranean Region of Switzerland.

Dear friends of Switzerland,

Are you curious about the Italian part of Switzerland? Believe it or not, Ticino offers a rich diversity in terms of landscapes, food and wine. The region can be discovered by train or boat, taking you from the southern side of the Alps to the palm trees at clean beaches, where you will get a feel of Italy.

When the autumn season starts in Ticino, it seems as if summer is still going. Even when the days get shorter, the region retains its charm, the sun shines, the colours change, and the chestnut urchins populate the woods.

Autumn in Ticino comes with a variety of activities, such as scenic bike rides through chestnut forests, meadows and streams or visiting a local market, where you can buy local handcrafts and savour autumn delights. You can even take a stroll to a Risotto rice field!
